THE CASE of CHRISTOPHER HEVENINGHAM OF THE CITY OF LICHFIELD, GENT. He is grandson of Nicholas Heveningham, Esq., who was son of Walter Heveningham, of Pipe, in the county of Stafford. The said Nicholas had 3 sons, vizt. Walter, Symon and Christopher. Xtopher dyed unmarried. Walter had no issue male, but had two daughters, one married to Walter Fowler, Esq., the other to Sir James Simeon. Symon had issue, John, Henry and Christopher, who is the party claiming. His brothers John and Henry were both educated Papists beyond the seas, and when grown up returned to England, when Sir James Simeon found means to have them both put into Bethlem (to prevent them claiming the estate belonging to the Heveninghams) where John died in a few weeks, & Henry not of 10 or 12 years. Sir James also contrived to send this claimant Xtopher into the Indies, where he remained many years (and was said to be dead, to Sir James, his great satisfaction) but has returned and embraced the Protestant Religion of the established church of England - married and hath issue now living 4 sons and one daughter. He made a claim to the estate in Chancery, and Sir James Simeon told Mr. Lee (who was the claimant's Lawyer) that he had no right to the estate, while his aunt Heveningham was living, but when she died, it was his. Proceeding in Chancery, he obtained a decree of 50l. per Annum to be paid out of Pipe Estate. In the beginning of Queen Anne's reign [1702-14] he brought an Ejectment against Sir James. Issue was joined, council feed, an Evidence ready for a trial, when Mr. Gatticre, Sir James his attorney, came to Mr. Porter, the claimant's attorney, and said he had a fine and recovery upon the estate, and produced a parchment, which Mr. Porter scarcely perused when he said he would acquiesce in the matter, and he would not try the case. Sir Edward Simeon (son of Sir James) enjoys lands of the yearly value of 2,000L nearly, all or most of which 'tis said came by the Heveninghams, who are now reduced to 50L. p. Annum for the father and 4 sons and one daughter to subsist upon. Sir James has formerly overpowered the claimant by his heavy purse, which occasioned the sale of a good estate the claimant had in right of his wife - and tho' Sir James in his life-time did know & Sir Edward now does know the claiment to be right ... he is reduced for want of money & friends to assist him.

Thomas White, Sir Robert White-Thomson's grandfather, married Mary, daughter of the Rev. Daniel William Remington, Vicar of St. Mary's, Lichfield, by Mary his wife, daughter of Christopher Heveningham, whose father, also Christopher Heveningham, was, as I showed (p. 216), one of the jury sworn for the trial of Michael Johnson, in 1718, before the Lichfield Quarter Sessions. Sir Robert tells me that Henry Heveningham, whose name also occurs in the jury panel, but who was not sworn, was the eldest son of Christopher, senior; he married, but died without issue. Sir Robert has 'a small picture on copper of his great-grandmother. Mary Heveningham (born March, 1727), who, with her sister Arabella, was brought up by the Welds at Lulworth Castle, Humphrey Weld having married Margaret, daughter of Sir James Simeon, first baronet, by Bridget his wife, daughter and eventual heir of Walter Heveningham, of Aston, Staffs ; as well as a fine miniature of her ...
